8. The Act is amended by repealing section 14 and substituting therefor the following section:—

Section 14 of
Cap. 551
is repealed
and replaced

"Applications for registration as voter 14,(I) A person who wishes to be registered as a voter under this Act-

- (a) shall apply in person to the Registration Officer for the polling district in which he is ordinarily resident;
- (b) may so apply during a registration period at a time and place notified under section 13; and
- (c) shall satisfy such Registration Officer-
 - (i) that he is qualified for registration as applied for by him;
 - (ii) that he is ordinarily resident in the polling district in respect of which he is making his application; and
 - (iii) that he is not already registered as a voter under this Act in respect of the polling district to which his application relates or any other polling district.

(2) Upon being satisfied as prescribed by subsection (1), the Registration officer shall give to the applicant a registration application form in duplicate.

(3) Forthwith upon receiving the registration application form the applicant shall enter in both the original and duplicate thereof the information and particulars required by the form to be furnished by him and shall sign or affix his thumb print to both the original and the duplicate of the form and return the same to the Registration Officer.

(4) The Registration Officer may assist the applicant to enter on the form such information and particulars and, subject to being satisfied that all the information and particulars required to be entered on the form in respect of the applicant have been duly entered thereon, the Registration Officer shall complete the form by entering therein the prescribed serial number and signing the same. Upon so completing the form the Registration officer shall give the duplicate thereof to the applicant and shall retain the original thereof and deal with it as prescribed.

(5) The Registration officer shall make and maintain a record of all serial numbers entered by him on registration application forms.

(6) The Director of Elections may give to registration officers generally or to a particular Registration Officer directions with respect to the making and maintaining of records of serial numbers entered upon registration application forms and every Registration Officer shall observe any such direction which is applicable to him.

(7) Within seven days after the end of any calendar month, every Registration Officer shall furnish to the Director of Elections a return showing in order of serial numbers the names of the applicants for registration as voters under this Act in respect of whom he has completed registration application forms during that month and shall accompany such return with the original of every such form. Every such return shall show, in relation to every name therein, the serial number of the completed registration application form, the residential address and sex of the person named, and the polling station at which he may vote."

Section 15 of
cap. 551
repealed and
replaced

9. The Act is amended by repealing section 15 and substituting therefor the following section :—

15.-(1) Where any person who is registered as a voter under this Act becomes ordinarily resident in a polling district other than the polling district for which he is so registered such person may apply in person to the Registration officer for that other polling district. He may so apply during a registration period at a time and place notified under section 13.

"Change of residence

(2) If an applicant under subsection (I)-

(a) satisfies such Registration Officer-

- (i) that he is qualified for registration as applied for by him;
- (ii) that he is ordinarily resident in the polling district in respect of which he is making his application; and

(b) surrenders to such Registration Officer the duplicate of the registration application form given to him in respect of the polling district wherein he formerly ordinarily resided, or satisfies such Registration Officer that such duplicate has been lost or destroyed, such Registration Officer shall give to such applicant a registration application form in duplicate. Forthwith upon receiving such form the applicant shall enter in both the original and duplicate thereof the information and particulars required by the form to be furnished by him, and shall sign or affix his thumb print to both the original and the duplicate of the form and return the same to the Registration Officer.

(3) The Registration Officer may assist the applicant to enter on the form such information and particulars and, subject to being satisfied that all the information and particulars required to be entered on the form in respect of the applicant have been duly entered thereon, the Registration officer shall complete the form by entering thereon the prescribed serial number and signing the same. Upon so completing the form the Registration Officer shall give the duplicate thereof to the applicant and shall retain the original thereof and deal with it as prescribed.

(4) The Registration Officer shall include in the record required under subsection (3) of section 14 to be made and maintained by him, all serial numbers of registration application forms completed by him under this section and in respect of every such form the registration officer shall include in the appropriate monthly return required under subsection (4) of section 14 to be furnished by him to the Director of Elections the name of every applicant to whom he has given the duplicate of such form, its serial number, and the polling station at which he may vote and the residential address and sex of the applicant, and shall accompany such return with the original of such form and, if the applicant has surrendered it to him, the duplicate of the application registration form issued under section 14.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of section 11, or subsection (1), (2), (3) and (4) of this section where, by reason of any change of name of a constituency or any adjustment in the number of constituencies or in the boundaries or areas of any constituencies or part of any constituency becomes part of another constituency or a polling district or part of a polling district of any other constituency, it shall not be necessary for any voter whose name is in any register affected by such change in name or adjustment to apply for the transfer of his name to the appropriate register, but the Director of Elections shall, as soon as possible, make all such amendments and transfers of registrations of voters whose registrations are affected by such change in name or adjustment as are necessary in the circumstances to ensure that every such voter is registered as such for the polling district in which he ordinarily resides."

Section 16 of
Cap. 551
repealed and
replaced

10. The Act is amended by repealing section 16 and substituting therefor the following section: -

"Provisional
registration
application form

16.-(1) Where-

- (a) the duplicate of any registration application form is lost or destroyed; or
- (b) becomes so dilapidated that any particulars thereon cannot be read; or
- (c) any particulars of any registration application form require amendment by reason of a change of name of, or a change in any other circumstance (other than a change of residence from one polling district to another) affecting the voter in question, the voter to whom such duplicate was issued may, during a registration period at a time and place notified under section 13, apply in person to the Registration Officer for a provisional registration application form.

(2) On any application under subsection (1) the Registration Officer-

- (a) if satisfied that the application is properly made and that the applicant remains qualified for registration;
- (b) where the application is made under paragraphs (b) or (c) of subsection (1), upon the applicant surrendering to the Registration Officer the duplicate of the registration application form to which the application relates;
- (c) where the application is made under paragraph (a) of subsection (1), upon the applicant satisfying the Registration Officer that the duplicate of the registration application form to which the application relates has been lost or destroyed;

(d) on the applicant paying to the Registration Officer such fees as the Commission may require,

may issue in respect of the applicant a provisional application registration form.

(3) A provisional application registration form shall be-

(a) in the form of, and contain the particulars required by, an application registration form;

(b) completed as required in the case of a registration application form, except that the number assigned to it shall be the serial number of the registration application form to which the application relates.

(4) A provisional application registration form shall be in duplicate and both the original and duplicate shall have printed thereon the word "Provisional" and shall differ in colour from each other and from both the original and duplicate of an application registration form.

(5) Upon completing the provisional registration application form, the Registration Officer shall give the duplicate to the applicant and shall retain the original thereof and deal with it as is required by subsection (6).

(6) With respect to provisional registration application forms the Registration Officer shall make and furnish to the Director of Elections together with the monthly return required under subsection (4) of section 14 a separate return showing the names of the applicants with respect to whom he has issued provisional registration application forms during the month to which the return under subsection (4) of section 14 relates, and shall accompany such return with the original of every provisional application registration form issued by him during that month. He shall also accompany such return with all duplicates of registration application forms which were surrendered to him by applicants named in the return."

11. The Act is amended by repealing section 17 and substituting therefor the following section: -

"Declaration relating to lost or destroyed forms

17. (1) Where in respect of an application made under the foregoing provisions of this Act the applicant claims that the duplicate of any registration application form or provisional registration application form given to him has been lost or destroyed, the Registration Officer shall require the applicant to make a declaration in the prescribed form relating to such loss or destruction.

Section 17
replaced

(2) Without prejudice to his power to refuse the application upon any other ground, a Registration Officer shall refuse any application referred to in subsection (1) if the applicant, being required by the Registration Officer so to do, fails to make a declaration as required by that subsection."

amended

13. Section 22 of the Act is amended by-

(a) deleting subsection (3) and substituting therefor the following subsection:-

"(3) If, in the opinion of the Registration Officer, such prima facie proof as aforesaid is given, the Registration Officer shall require proof that the person in respect of whom the objection is made is then qualified to be registered according to the registration the subject of the objection. If such proof satisfies the Registration officer-

- (a) that the person concerned is so qualified, he shall find accordingly and disallow the objection;
- (b) that the person concerned is not so qualified, he shall find accordingly and deal with the matter as required by this subsection.

Upon completing any inquiry the Registration Officer shall inform in writing the Director of Elections of his finding thereon and, if such finding is that the person concerned is not qualified to be registered according to the registration the subject of the objection, shall accompany such information with the record of the inquiry.

Where the finding of the Registration Officer is that the person concerned is not qualified to be registered according to the registration the subject of the objection, the Director of Elections shall consider the record of the inquiry and, if satisfied that the finding is correct, shall delete the name of the person concerned from the register.

If not so satisfied, the said Director shall retain the name in question in the register.

In every such case, the said Director shall inform the person concerned whether or, not he has deleted the name of such person from the register and, if so, the grounds on which he has deleted it. ",

- (b) in subsection (4) deleting the words "then the Registration Officer shall retain the name of the person in regard to whom the objection is made in the register" and substituting therefor the words "then the Registration Officer shall disallow the objection"

Voting cards cancelled

(2) Every person to whom a voting card to which subsection (1) applies was issued shall cease to be registered as a voter and shall no longer be entitled to vote at any election by virtue of the issue to him of such a voting card, but without prejudice to his entitlement to be registered as a voter under the Act as amended by this Act.

PART II

AMENDMENTS TO THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS ACT, 1965

38. In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires, "the Act" means the Presidential Elections Act, 1965.

39. The Act is amended by repealing section 3 and substituting therefor the following section: -

Section 3
repealed and

"Voters

3.-(1) Subject to this Act and the National Assembly (Elections) Act, 1964 a person who is registered as a voter under the National Assembly (Elections) Act, 1964 shall be entitled to vote at any election of a President.

(2) Such person may so vote-

(a) on the Presidential Election Day appointed by or under this Act for the constituency for which he is registered as a voter: and

(b) at the polling place allotted to him in the polling district for which he is so registered and not elsewhere:

Provided that where in any constituency a Presidential election day is also election day for a contested Parliamentary election a person who is a candidate for that constituency in that contested Parliamentary election may vote at any polling place in that constituency whether or not he is registered as a voter in any polling district thereof."

40. Section 5 of the Act is amended by deleting subsections (3) and (4) and substituting therefor the following subsections: -

amended

"(3) The Electoral Commission shall appoint as presidential Election Day-

- (a) in the case of a Presidential Election held by reason of the dissolution of Parliament (other than in the circumstances provided for by paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of section 7 of the Constitution)-
 - (i) for each constituency in which there is a contested Parliamentary election' the day appointed as election day for that contested election;
 - (ii) for every other constituency, a day not less than forty days and not more than fifty days after the day on which the nomination of the sole Presidential candidate shall have been certified to the Commission.
- (b) In the case of Presidential Election to which paragraph (a) of this subsection does not apply, for every constituency a day not less than forty days and not more than fifty days after the nomination of the sole Presidential candidate shall have been certified to the Commission.
- (4) Different days may be appointed under sub-paragraph (ii) of paragraph (a) or Paragraph (b) of subsection (3) for different constituencies.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (3) a constituency for which a Parliamentary election is countermanded or in which the election procedure for a Parliamentary election is commenced afresh, shall be deemed to be a constituency in which there is not a contested Parliamentary election."

Repeal of
section 6

41. The Act is amended by repealing section 6 and substituting therefor the following section: -

"When
election day to be countermanded

6. Where, pursuant to Section 38 of the National Assembly (Elections) Act, 1964 the Parliamentary election for any constituency has been countermanded, the Electoral Commission-

- (a) shall countermand the Presidential Election Day, if any, appointed by it for that constituency under section 5 prior to such countermand; and
- (b) (having regard to election day for the Parliamentary election for that constituency which the said section 38 prescribes shall be held afresh) shall appoint under and in accordance with section 5 a fresh Presidential Election Day for that constituency."

42. The Act is amended by repealing section 9 and substituting therefor the following section: -

Section 9
repealed and
replaced

"9. In any polling district in which the polling day for a contested Parliamentary election is also a polling day for a Presidential Election and a local authority election—

- (a) polling at those three elections shall be conducted simultaneously at all polling stations in that district;
- (b) the Returning Officer shall provide separate and distinctive ballot boxes and every presiding officer shall so organize and conduct his polling station and shall so place the ballot boxes thereat, as to avoid any confusion arising by reason of such simultaneous polling;
- (c) the ballot papers for those elections respectively shall be of different colours, such colours being such as are easily distinguishable from one another;
- (d) a voter who leaves a polling place after voting for any but not all of those elections shall not be readmitted to such polling place for the purpose of voting for any of those elections for which he did not vote in the first instance;
- (e) the requirements of sub-paragraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of section 46 of the National Assembly (Elections) Act, 1964 shall be complied with in respect of all three of those elections if the particulars specified in that sub-paragraph are called out once immediately before the delivery to the voter of the ballot paper for any of those elections which is first delivered to him;
- (f) a person registered as a voter in any polling district in any constituency who is a supervisory delegate for the purposes of a contested Parliamentary Election in any other constituency may vote in a polling district of that other constituency in both the Presidential Election and the Local Authority Election in the like manner as he may vote therein for the contested Parliamentary Election;
- (g) the counting of votes for those three elections respectively shall be conducted separately."

43. Section 11 of the Act is hereby repealed.

Repeat of
section 11
